

Artist Biography

Gregory Santos was born in Rockville Centre, New York and is the second son of two art teachers. His introduction, training, and involvement in the arts began at home when he was a child. He works out of New York City.

Gregory earned his BFA from Syracuse University ('02), spent the spring of 2001 in Florence, Italy studying the Italian Renaissance, and earned his MA from New York University ('06). Gregory completed the Printer Training Program at the Tamarind Institute for Lithography ('07).

He has worked professionally as a letterpress printer, bookbinder, book conservator, high end framer, and fine art silkscreen printer. He has printed fine art editions for artists including: Jill Moser, Guillermo Kuitca, and Robert Kushner and collaborated with many others.

Gregory has taught workshops and given demonstrations including: stone lithography, letterpress, bookbinding, silk screen, and photopolymer Solarplate printing. He has exhibited in: New York, NY, Albuquerque, NM, Syracuse, NY, Burlington, VT, Columbus, OH, East Jordan, MI, Auburn, NY, Portland, OR.